

Symphony No 5

4th Movement

Beethoven's 5th Symphony is one of the most famous pieces ever written. The last movement is in C major (not the home key of C minor) and has a rejoicing and triumphant feel. It is amazing to think that Beethoven was deaf when he composed it.

Ludwig Van Beethoven

Allegro

The image shows the beginning of the 4th movement of Beethoven's 5th Symphony. It is in 4/4 time and C major. The tempo is marked 'Allegro'. The score is written for piano (p) and starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The first staff is the treble clef, and the second and third staves are the grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The music begins with a piano introduction, featuring a series of chords in the right hand and a rhythmic pattern in the left hand. The first four measures show the piano introduction, and the fifth measure marks the beginning of the main theme.
