

Four Songs on Poems by Sara Teasdale

for Soprano and Piano

Eric Funk (1990)

1. DOUBT

Freely - chant-like

Soprano mp

My Soul lives in my bo - dy's house, and you have both the house and

Piano mp [play melody with soprano, pedal depressed]

Ped.

her - but some - times she is less your own than a wild, ad - ven - tur - er,

Ped.

A rest - less and an eag - er wraith, How can I tell what she will do - Oh,

Ped.

I am sure of my bo - dy's faith, but what if my soul broke faith with you?

Ped.

*

4. LET IT BE YOU

mf dolce

Let it be you who lean a - bove me on my last day, Let it be

p

you who shut my eye - lids for - ev - er and aye. Say a

"good - night" as you have said it all these years, with the old look,